The Township's Temperature

by LARRY O'KELLEY
Freelance Writer

At the October 14, 1998 board meeting Treasurer Adkins seemed to take the board by surprise with two proposals. The first was a new heating/cooling system bid and a request to transfer several accounts from First of America Bank to Old Kent Bank.

Regarding the temperature system, the treasurer indicated the information was provided to him by the building department director John Chihan. He indicated that while he was not necessarily in support of the information but would bring it to the board's attention.

The information contained a bid of $11,500 to install a new system for the township hall. Currently the system is a combination of 1/2 boiler heat and 1/2 electric heat. This is a very inefficient way to heat the building and for years the building has needed central air conditioning. As a matter of fact, one board member suggested the heating system went back to Supervisor Bud Dugan.

The building department drew up some specifications and sent them out to several contractors. Only one responded in the amount of $11,500. The board suggested another round of specifications be sent out and that the matter be re-bid. Treasurer Adkins was agreeable to this and the bid of $11,500 was filed away.

The other proposal as to transfer several current accounts from First of America Bank to Old Kent Bank. Treasurer Adkins advised the board that with the change of ownership to National City, he felt it was in the best interest to move the accounts. He indicated that National City would still be used for investment of township funds, but with the board's approval, a total of five fund accounts would be moved to Old Kent Bank. Some of the board members seemed uncomfortable with the sudden nature of the request, but eventually did agree to the request.

Cars Everywhere — What A Show!

A siren, flashing lights, police car and the Blues Brothers! What a way to start a car show. That is how the Waltz event started Sunday, October 12. Waltz Road in downtown Waltz had been closed and the antique cars lined both sides of the road.

The Blues Brothers, Gleen Dryden, Doug Williams, Greg Beck, and Brad McClain provided the crowd with old time rock and roll throughout the afternoon.

There were approximately 100 people in attendance and the music and cars were enjoyed by all.

This reporter looked at 22 cars and talked to some proud owners. There varied makes and models; Plymouth, Buick, Kaiser, Ford, Chevrolet, Jeep and a 7UP Ford delivery truck. The oldest car there was a 1929 Ford Model A owned by Tony Meyers of Monroe. My personal favorite was a 1953 Kaiser Manhattan owned by Tom and Doris Buzan of Carleton. My father owned a 1953 Kaiser and seeing this one brought back childhood memories. Our own Nora Adkins proudly displayed her 1955 Ford.

The judges for the day were Jim Murray, Jim Mason, Bob Antaya.

This even was sponsored by the Waltz Improvement Association. They are currently sponsoring a Haunted House (see display ad) and are planning future events that will provide community enrichment.

Reflections from the River — Our View and Opinion

The race for the 34th District Judgeship has seemed to have gone on forever. Perhaps it was the non-partisan nature of the job or perhaps it was because there were only two candidates running. Regardless, the communities of the 34th District have, for months, watched two men go door to door, put up hundreds of signs and campaign day after day for a job that pays $106,000 a year and carries with it the prestige of being called "Judge" or "Your Honor."

Both men are honorable men and both have worked hard to get their message across and neither one would be a bad choice. However, we feel that the best choice is Norm Kohlstrand and we recommend him as our next District Court Judge.

Norm, age 52 seems to bring a combination of legal experience, compassion and life experiences that make him the best choice. Norm, who resides in Huron Township has served in the armed services, served as a Wayne County Sheriff, worked his way through law school and has been practicing law for the last nine years. He has worked as a prosecutor for Romulus which is in the 34th District Court and for Dearborn Heights and Woodhaven.

We would think that such life experience might make Norm a little tough and rough around the edges. However, we have been covering Norm and his campaign for several months and we have noticed that Norm also has a gentle side. He has related several stories or examples where it was clear to use that compassion with justice was his guiding force in trying to come to some equitable solution. This is a good trait for a judge to have.

At the "Meet the Press" meeting, held several weeks ago, we thought Norm's work and life experiences came through and that he did a better job responding to the questions than his opponent Brian Oakley did.

We also felt that while the conflict of interest was overstated as an issue, it was still an issue that likely would cause problems for Brian.

We added it all up and Norm, in our mind, was the better candidate. We recall that Norm was once asked why he was running for judge and he responded, "Because it is time it is time." We agree with Norm. It is time! We urge you to cast your vote in the non-partisan section of the ballot and we urge you to vote for Norm Kohlstrand for 34th District Court Judge.

AL FRESCO

Georgette Heron-Willoughby

Just as I promised, "It's Soup." The timing for this series couldn't be any more perfect. I am starting this series off on the rightfoot by writing the article on a cold rainy day.

Wouldn't it be so nice to come home after a long day at work to the aroma of home cooked soup. The invention of the crock pot is one of the greatest of the 20th century, don't you think?

If you have the luxury to be at home, you can either use the convenience of the crock pot or simmer it on the stove.

I hope this series of soups opens a new taste for your palate. I have always told people that I have inherited my dad's soup gene. We have always had a knack for creat-

Time & Nature, The Nature of Time

The changing season, Father Time,
Mother Nature adapts in rhyme;
Cold wind blows across the frozen ground,
Gardens are barren and without sound;
Springs first rains melt the frost,
Gardens once missed are found not lost;
Buds to flowers and then to seeds,
Black birds leave the marshy reeds;
Frost replaces the once warm rain,
Time and Nature once again.

ing mouthwatering soups.

These days I have been spending my time trying to make my old creations into lighter more healthy ones. I hope that you enjoy them as much as I do.

This week's recipe has matured since its creation. You will notice that this recipe calls for tequila, it is optional but if you feel adventurous you are in for a real treat, don't worry about the alcohol it will burn off, but leave the flavor. This is a hearty soup so have a loaf of some great bread on hand and you've got a spectacular meal.

Southwest Bean Soup

- | | |
|---------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------|
| 1 15-Oz. Can Black Beans (drained) | 1 Cup Celery (coarsely chopped) |
| 1 15-Oz. Can Great Northern Beans (drained) | 1/2-Cup Carrot (coarsely chopped) |
| 3 Cups Chicken Broth | 2-3 Tsp. Red Pepper Flakes |
| 1 Bay Leaf | 1 Tbs. Jalapeno (finely chopped) |
| 1 Clove Garlic (chopped fine) | 1/2 Tsp. Salt |
| 1 Med. Onion (coarsely chopped) | 1/4 Cup Tequila (optional) |

Simmer all ingredients for 2 hours on stove or in crock pot on low 6-8 hours. When the soup is cooked, mash it with a potato masher or *remove half of the vegetables and set aside, mix the rest of the ingredients in a blender and put all of the ingredients back into the pot, stir and heat if necessary.

For a real treat add a tbs. of sour cream or some shredded cheddar cheese to each bowl.

Kohlstrand Gets Stamp Of Approval

Sumpter Township Supervisor Marvin Banotai has given his enthusiastic endorsement to the judicial candidacy of Norman C. Kohlstrand for 34th District Court Judge. Mr.

Banotai took note of Kohlstrand's maturity and level of experience, together with his long history of public service, including periods of time when Kohlstrand served in the

Norman C. Kohlstrand.

Sumpter community when he was a Wayne County Deputy Sheriff, both as a patrolman and as a detective.

Mr. Banotai feels that Kohlstrand's law enforcement background, coupled with his extensive trial court experience, makes him the ideal candidate to take the bench and continue his long tradition of service to the community.

Leonard Mungo, attorney and president of the Western Wayne County Branch of the NAACP is aware of how difficult it is for African Americans to receive fairness and justice in our courts. That is why he strongly urges you to vote on November 3rd for Norman C. Kohlstrand. He is convinced that Kohlstrand will deliver justice equally to all the people.

Waltz Into Fall Fashion

The Waltz Inn hosted its 5th annual fashion show on October 19th and 20th. This year's theme took guests to the islands for a tropical getaway, complete with hula dancers and tropical music. The meal exceeded the usual fine quality that the Waltz Inn is known for. The guests dine on a choice of Chicken Caesar or Grilled Tuna Salads, Spinach Dumpling Soup and a delicate frozen Pumpkin Creme dessert. The show and the meal were well worth the $25 ticket price.

The fashions from the Trisha Boutique in the Woodhaven Commons were as warm and comfortable as the tropics. The fashion theme included a lot of soft fur trim, warm and wild animal prints, fluffy boucle, scarves and boas, holiday velvets, long and layered with crusher hats and tams to top it off. I was impressed by the fact that they used real women, young and old, to model for the show. It makes shopping for clothes a more realistic experience. The fashions were available to guests after the show along with a 15-percent discount.

A few lucky guests had the winning tickets in a drawing and received some beautiful prizes. But no one went home empty handed, everyone was given a nice Halloween gift compliments of Kathy Fox and staff at the Waltz Inn.

I'm already looking forward to going to next year's how.

Happy Halloween!

Truth, Truth, Truth!

In May 1998, in a televised interview, Brian Oakley was asked by Margaret O'Kelley whether he thought there would ever be a conflict for him because his father was mayor of Romulus and so many of the court's cases came from Romulus. His response is as follows:

"I think it would be inappropriate for me to hear cases dealing with the Romulus prosecutor ... the Romulus Police Department. I think that has a strong appearance of impropriety."

The ONLY person who has EVER said Oakley has a conflict problem to deal with has been Oakley!

Oakley cannot deny making that statement ... or he would be telling us lies. Of course, if his statement is not accurate, then perhaps it is Oakley who does not understand the court system and how it works!

Now, Oakley wants you, the voter, to believe that 'someone is telling lies' about him ... when the raw truth is that someone has merely pointed out what Oakley has stated as his own position ... that he believes it would be inappropriate for him to hear more than half of the criminal cases brought in the 34th District Court because of what Oakley says is 'a strong appearance of impropriety.'

And, if he doesn't believe it, why did he say it?

(and remember ... he's had two years to think about his answer to the 'conflict' question)

So, which is the real Brian Oakley? And where is all his integrity? Where is his courage and willingness to stand by his own words? Why does he continue to attempt to mislead the voters?

Voters, you DO have a choice on November 3rd!
